Several special guests were also introduced.

A motion was made and seconded to dispense with the reading of the Nominating Committee report and to approve the 2016 Nominating Committee Report as printed in the Annual Meeting booklet. M/C

Secretary/Treasurer Sorenson introduced the candidates for director districts. Candidates for District 1A are Angela

Moe and Wayne Skarda. Candidate for District 4 is Jeanette Hoff and she is running unopposed. Candidate for District 6 is Barbara Steinmetz and she is running unopposed.

A motion was made and seconded to cast a unanimous ballot for Jeanette Hoff for District 4 and Barbara Steinmetz for District 6. M/C

Each candidate for District 1A was invited to speak for 3-5 minutes.

Ballots were distributed by RTC Employees to the voting delegates for the election of a director for District 1A and then collected to be counted by the Election Committee.

President Hoff introduced Marketing Manager Shannon Staflien as chairperson of the Annual Meeting Committee. There were drawings for door prizes.

President Hoff gave a short report on the changes over the past year. We had a new CEO, Shane Hart, and two new board members elected last year and now have another new board member being elected this year with the retirement of Director Paul Wisness. RTC is working to build a faster, more dependable network. We are close to 75% completed in reaching all our members with fiber connections. We are dedicated to bringing quality broadband to all members. The cost to complete all fiber connections is great, and RTC is committed to completing the last 25% using RTC cash reserves. Because of this commitment, the Board of Directors has been reviewing capital credit obligations and RTC will make a general retirement when it is financially viable to do so as determined by the Board of Directors. The Board will never cease to review our financial situation as we upgrade our facilities to reach the goal of company-wide fiber to the home. RTC will continue to pay out capital credits for estate retirements.

Chief Financial Officer David Aamot presented the audit report. CFO Aamot noted that RTC auditor Moss Adams gave RTC a clean audit report opinion for 2015 and directed members to look at their statement in the Annual Meeting book.

CFO Aamot reviewed the Statement of Operations and the Balance Sheet. He noted the total operating revenue of $32,217,380 for the year 2015, an increase of almost $2.5 million and 8.25% over 2014. This was due to economic growth, increased network access and video sales. Operation and interest expenses increased 8.4% from 2014 to 2015. Over 75% of this increase is depreciation due to the $78 million of plant invested by the co-op over the last five years. Once you remove depreciation, expenses only increased 2%. Net margins for 2015 totaled $2,972,497. There was $448,111 of capital credits retirement to estates in 2015. Plant increased by over $2,782,000. RTC ended 2015 with total assets of $111,911,880. Under the liabilities section, long term debt is only up $365,000. Take note of the growth in services over the last five years as we transition from copper to fiber.

A motion was made and seconded to accept the Audit Report for 2015. M/C

President Hoff introduced CEO/General Manager Shane Hart.

CEO/GM Hart thanked the members for their patronage, loyalty, and membership. He reported that RTC is continuing with their upgrade from a copper cable plant to an all fiber network. This year we will be plowing fiber to Alexander, Arnegard, Douglas, Emmet, Keene, Makoti, Norma, Ross, Ryder and Spencer exchanges. He thanked the members that are waiting for fiber for their patience, understanding and easements. We are happy to be recognized by The Rural Broadband Association as a Gig-Certified Provider which means RTC can offer at least one gig in at least one community that we serve.

CEO/GM Hart wanted to give special recognition to the employees for their work at RTC and for their work in our service communities. He thanked the Board for their leadership and guidance.

CEO/GM Hart recognized the 2015 RTC Scholarship recipients attending the annual meeting.

CEO/GM Hart recognized our FRS Youth Tour participant, Jessica Bingham, Max.

President Hoff and CEO/GM Hart presented retirement plaques from RTC recognizing Carl Brunzell for his 30 years of service and Director Paul Wisness for 33 years of service.

CEO/GM Hart thanked the Annual Meeting Committee chairperson, Shannon Staflien, along with the Annual Meeting Committee members.

There were drawings for door prizes.

Attorney Alicia Brenna discussed proposed bylaw changes. The proposed changes are in Article IV, Board of Directors, Section 4.5 Nomination. Members have until September to make comments regarding these changes.

FIBER MOVES DATA AND ENHANCES

WELCOME TO RTC'S 66TH ANNUAL MEETING, "FOCUS ON FIBER." This theme reflects the central role of fiber technology in RTC's current services as well as in our future plans. Get ready to focus on fiber at tonight's gathering. You'll need to look closely, since each fiber optic thread is only about the size of a human hair!

CEO/General Manager

RTC CONTINUES TO BUILD OUT FIBER IN OUR SERVICE AREA

To make sure our member-owners and customers—even those in remote areas—have access to high speed internet and related services, RTC is proceeding aggressively with fiber network expansion. We invested over $20 million in outside plant infrastructure in 2016 and plan to invest about $10 million in 2017. These large capital investments are made possible through loan funds from Rural Utilities Service, a division of the U.S. Department of Agriculture that administers programs providing much-needed infrastructure or infrastructure improvements to rural communities.

This year, RTC will build out Fiber-to-the-Home in rural Makoti, rural Garrison, and the City of Max as well as work on additional fiber projects in Keene, Arnegard, and Watford City. We take pride in knowing our commitment to fiber is making a positive impact on these small communities. Fiber helps level the playing field and close the urban-rural technology gap.

DEMAND FOR RTC SERVICES REMAINS STRONG

RTC is experiencing increases in the number of phone access lines and broadband subscribers. This is welcome growth, particularly in light of the struggles faced by many rural communications providers in other parts of the country.

Since our service area offers excellent housing options at affordable prices, more people are able to move into new homes or apartments. This activity can lead to stronger demand for RTC's services and the desire for higher level plans such as faster internet speeds and premium TV packages. As RTC continues to expand our fiber network, residents will have access to even more attractive and varied service offerings.

TA LIVES

NEW FCC LEADERSHIP BRINGS OPTIMISM TO RURAL COOPERATIVES

The need for fiber deployment in rural areas and the financial investment that process requires are two hot topics on the national level at the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). Fortunately, there are reasons for optimism as we plan for the future.

The new Chairman of the FCC is Ajit Pai, who previously served as Commissioner. Chairman Pai is from rural Kansas and understands the challenges rural cooperatives like RTC face in deploying state-of-the-art technology to sparsely populated areas. He also recognizes how important universal service is in that endeavor.

As noted on the FCC website, “With a good idea and a broadband connection, entrepreneurs anywhere can compete in ways unthinkable a generation ago.” Chairman Pai has proposed a comprehensive plan to promote broadband deployment to all Americans and make it easier for broadband providers to retire increasingly obsolete copper lines in favor of next-generation technologies like fiber. Pai also appears to be scrutinizing and streamlining many of the regulatory filings providers including RTC are tasked with today.

As a cooperative and as a member of NTCA – The Rural Broadband Association, RTC will keep working to encourage FCC support of fiber networks. They are needed to keep pace with growing consumer and business demand, and they help to foster economic development and stimulate innovation in rural areas.

STAND-ALONE BROADBAND MAY BE ON THE HORIZON

An FCC reform order adopted in March 2016 provides Universal Service Fund (USF) support for stand-alone broadband purchased without voice service. Stand-alone broadband was just one element of the order, which had the broader goal of helping to bring higher-speed broadband to rural areas at rates that are reasonably comparable with those in urban areas. Under the plan, the FCC will provide about $20 billion in support across the nation over the next 10 years to enable service providers in high-cost areas to provide stand-alone broadband to consumers and businesses.

RTC intends to offer stand-alone broadband in the near future. We are currently working through the details of how USF transitions to stand-alone broadband.

WE FOCUS ON FIBER AND ON YOU

As RTC looks ahead to the future of communications technology, we never lose sight of the ultimate goal—helping our member-owners and customers stay informed, connected, secure, and entertained. Thanks for your confidence in RTC and your continued choice of us to be your provider. We pledge to stay focused on meeting or exceeding your expectations.

FOCUS ON MEMBER-OWNERS

A cooperative is a business formed by a community to solve a common need and is owned by those it serves. Reservation Telephone Cooperative (RTC) was formed in 1951 to provide low-cost, quality telephone service to our member-owners and has since expanded our range of communications services.

As a cooperative, RTC is guided by these principles:

Voluntary and Open Membership

Cooperatives are formed by people looking for solutions to shared problems. They are open to all who use or provide their services and are willing to accept the responsibilities of membership.

Democratic Member Control

Cooperatives are controlled by those who use or provide the co-op's goods and services. Each member gets one vote to help make the organization's policies and decisions.

Member Economic Participation

Members equally "buy in" and democratically control the cooperative's capital based on the amount of business they conduct rather than the dollars they invest.

Autonomy and Independence

Cooperatives are independent, self-help organizations. If a co-op enters into an outside agreement or raises external capital, it still retains autonomy and democratic control.

Education, Training and Information

Cooperatives train their members, directors, and employees so they can best contribute to the co-op's development. They also educate the general public about cooperatives.

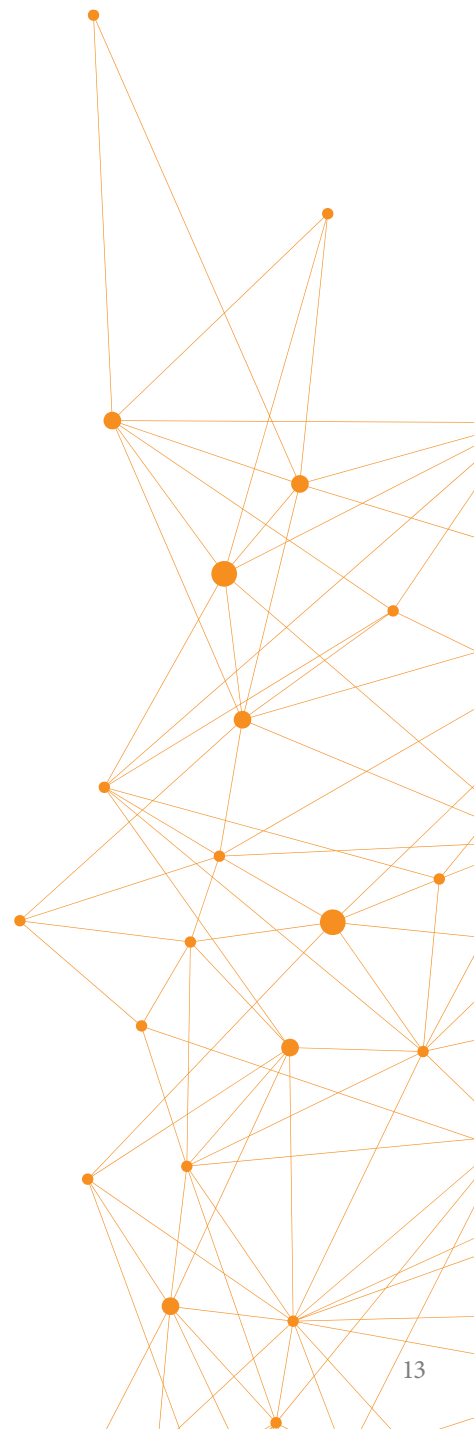

Cooperation Among Cooperatives

Cooperatives work together through strong local, national, regional, and international structures to most effectively serve their members.

Concern for Community

Cooperatives focus on local development through policies and programs directed by their members.

As RTC moves forward in the years ahead, our focus will remain on you—the member-owners of our cooperative. We work for you, with you, and because of you.

RTC SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

This year, RTC awarded four college scholarships, each in the amount of $2,500. These scholarships were given to students that met our scholarship criteria, in order to recognize their outstanding academic and personal achievements as well as encourage their continued educational success.

MACKENZIE JACOBSON

Garrison High School

Daughter of Brent and Cindy Jacobson. Plans to attend North Dakota State University to major in Business Administration.

SHAYLEE BILLADEAU

Parshall High School

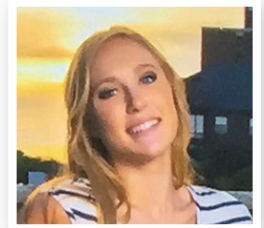

Daughter of Wade and Michelle Billadeau. Plans to attend North Dakota State University to major in Agri-Business and Accounting.

HUNTER DEFOE

Watford City High School

Son of Tim and Stacy DeFoe. Plans to attend Dickinson State University to major in Computer Science.

KATHRYN HANDELAND

Kenmare High School

Daughter of Emmy and Jeremy Handeland. Plans to attend the University of Mary to major in Finance and Accounting.

FRS YOUTH TOUR

Grace Nelson, a junior at Alexander High School, is attending the 2017 Foundation for Rural Service (FRS) Annual Youth Tour, June 3-7. Each year, in collaboration with National Telecommunications Cooperative Association member companies, FRS brings rural students from across the United States to Washington, D.C. for a four-day tour.

While in Washington, Grace will learn about the telecommunications industry, as well as the regulatory and legislative processes. She will visit the U.S. Capitol and the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and meet with industry leaders and members of Congress. Attendees will be given ample time to explore the Nation's Capital and its many attractions such as the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials; the Korean, Vietnam and new World War II Memorials; Mount Vernon, home of George Washington; the Smithsonian Museums; and much more.

Every year RTC randomly selects a school within their serving area. In turn that school selects a high school junior to attend the expense-paid FRS Youth Tour. Alexander High School was drawn this year and Grace Nelson was selected. Grace tutors other student and helps in elementary classrooms. She is also the football team manager and the lead alto in the school choir.
